LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I am writing this recommendation letter for Amicus Law for their invaluable service in the processing and approval of our work visa application. I would like to personally express my gratitude to Atty. Elcel Nerida and Jyostana Haria for being the 'right' immigration specialists who took care of our case. Our visa application was truly a roller-coaster ride, and without their help, we might not have successfully navigated the complexities of our application and the outcome would not have been the same. My husband and I cannot thank them enough for their sincere service and expertise.

We were with a different law firm but after three weeks, we decided to change our immigration lawyer as we felt that our case was being neglected. A friend of ours recommended Atty. Nerida based on his personal experience having gained approval for a three-year work visa without any major glitches. We made an appointment with Amicus Law and signed a contract with them after we were impressed with how Atty. Nerida explained our options in such a way that all our questions were answered. We expected that our application was going to be smooth, however, my employer withdrew their support at the last minute which threw us off balance. I had to look for another employer willing to support me. My transfer to the other company was not easy and stress-free as expected but with Atty. Nerida and Jyo Haria at the helm, I managed to move to another company and have my Work to Residence Visa approved in just two days. Aside from their expertise, I have noticed that they are very meticulous when preparing our paperwork to avoid any possible loopholes in our application. In short, we were convinced that they know what they are doing. They have great communication skills, too.

When friends ask us for any immigration lawyers, we always recommend Amicus Law based on our personal experience.

Sincerely,

Noreen & Achilles Manayan
